

Remarks

Applicants submit that the submission of corrected drawing sheets overcomes the basis for the Notice to Submit Corrected Application Papers. No new matter has been introduced.

In addition, applicants have noted that the drawings as filed contain only Figure 86, not Figures 86A-B as recited at page 22, lines 9-10. The above amendment to the specification corrects the typographical error appearing in the specification and thereby harmonizes the specification with the drawings.

Because the application papers are complete, applicants respectfully request examination and allowance of the presently claimed subject matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: January 30, 2004
